

Your passport to peace of mind with Journey Home

If a death should occur more than 100 kilometers from home, while out of the country or just out of town on a brief trip, bringing a loved one back home can be a complicated and expensive process. TruStage Life of Canada can help.

Average repatriation expenses without Journey Home coverage*

Anywhere, anytime, Journey Home is here for you.

TruStage Life of Canada makes the arrangements, so your family doesn't have to. Journey Home protection includes:

- Locating and engaging a local, licensed provider to handle preparations for repatriation
- Recovery and transportation to the local provider
- Handling the necessary documents, including consular services if outside Canada

It's time to travel with freedom.

Coverage is available to you across the globe, if your death occurs more than 100 kilometers from your primary residence. Travel confidently wherever you go and let Journey Home bring peace of mind to you and your family.
